

Laurentian University, located on Atikamekwsheng Anishnawbek territory in Sudbury, Ontario, serves over 7500 students and is one of two bilingual universities in the province of Ontario. Committed to its bilingual and tri-cultural mandate, Laurentian University offers a university experience in English and French with a comprehensive approach to Indigenous education. Laurentian's beautiful, forested campus is surrounded by on academic excellence, research and discovery, student success, and financial sustainability. We seek a leader who can foster a sense of community and respect among our students, staff and faculty. A student-centered, positive and empathic approach is essential. Laurentian's future presents exciting opportunities for growth and innovation in Northern Ontario and beyond.

Over 1100 graduate students are enrolled at Laurentian University in 34 Masters and 9 Doctoral programs. The university offers a variety of programs, including recent additions like (d)2 TJ -0.004 Tc 0.387 Tw 3 ing strategic insight to graduate studies. onal strategy with the overall enrollment President, Research and Director of ships to enhance training opportunities collaborate with the Advancement Office The Dean's responsibilities also encompass with the Faculty Deans to develop and management plan for domestic and and International, in collaboration with ational and the Office of the Registrar, is establishing best practices and processes to a five

